RHEUMATISM & THE FILES.

September 10, 1846.

Dr. Townsend—Dear Sir: My wife has been for several years afflicted with rheumatism. She has tried many different remedies to obtain some relief, but all to no purpose. She was finally induced, by seeing your advertisement, to give your Sarsaparilla a trial. We procured seme of it from your agent (Mr. Van Buskirk) and it gives me pleasure to state that after using it she experienced great relief, and was in a very short time perfectly cured. I was also (tegether with a man in my rienced great relief, and was in a very short time perfectly cured. I was also (together with a man in my employ) badly troubled with piles, and by using a small quantity of your Sarsaparilla, our complaint was completely cured. I consider it one of the best of medicines, and would advise all who are afflicted to give it a trial.

Cierzymen and Physicians.—As well as thousands of others in all parts of the United States, are continually sending certificates and informing us of the benefits throughout the season.

Our lee House will erived from Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla.
Dr. Townsend—Sir: Some time since you requested my opinion of the virtues of your compound syrup of Sarsaparilla; I am now prepared to give it. Have used it my precise and prescribed it for the last few months, and must give it my decided preference over anything of the kind with which I am acquainted, both as to its medical virtues and the reasonable price at which you sell it. In scrofulous affections, cutaneous cruptions generally, dyspepsia, indigestion, costive habits, and liver complaints. I am much pleased with its effects. In these complaints or any other where scrofula is indicated, I can with confidence recommend it to the patronage of the profession as a valuable auxiliary for removing diseases in some of its most troublesome forms, and to all, as a safe and valuable headience.

Brooklyn, Nov. 21, 1846. BENJ. WEEKS, M. D. Dr. Townsend—Dear Sir: Having for some time past been afflicted with a pulmonary affection on my bungs, and a continual pain in my side, owing to evening exposure in travelling after preaching, and finding my diseases to increase, with much difficulty of breathing and other alaraning symptoms, I was advised by a chergyman, a friend of mine, to try your celebrated Sorsaparilla. I did so, and after taking two or three bottles I found my self much stronger, and hope very soon to resume my usual duties. I have been so greatly benefited by your excellent medicine, I feel it my duty to make known the facts for the benefit of others who may be laboring under the same difficulties that I have been for some time past. Yours, respectfully, SAM. WHITE, Nov. 22, 1816.] Pastor of Baptist Church, Staten Island.

Brooklyn, Sept. 14, 1840.

Dr. Townsended Dear Sir: I was taken, a little over a year ago, with a severe cough and a pain in my side. It increased on me very fast, indeed. I was pronounced by physicians to have the quick consumption. I raised large quantities of bad matter, had night sweats, and sinking very fast: my doctor said he could do nothing for me. I went into the hospital in hope of being benefitted, but was pronounced there as incurable. I was now greatly distressed at the lungs and could hardly breathe; I soon became emaciated, and expected to die: was confined to my bed, and was obliged to have watchers; indeed I cannot give you any description that would do justice to my case. I was supposed by my friends to be past recovery; I had tried a great number of remedies, and all scemed to be to no purpose. I read of some most extrerdinary cures performed by your medicine, and to tell you the truth, I suspected there was some humbug in them. But I was induced to try it; I did so, and am very thankful I did. I cannot say that I am entirely well, but am so far recovered as to be about

COUNTY CONVENTION.—We again take the liberty of calling to the attention of the Democrats of New Hanover, the matter of the County and District Convention, to be held in this place on Tuesday of April Superior Court. We would, if they will permit us, urge upon them the propriety of immediately holding meetings in each district, and appointing such delegates as they can rely upon to act for them in the Convention. We think we need scarcely detain our readers by offering arguments upon the propriety of prompt and con-gence from the seat of war. It will be seen City, could it be possible for the party consisthat the difficulties amongst our distinguished tently with the repeated declarations of Mr. officers, to inquire into which a Court has Polk that he would not again be a candidate been organized at Mexico, is about, if the for the Presidency, to place his name there.feeling will again be restored.

LATER FROM MEXICO. Through the Charleston Courier's Express we have Mobile dates to the 31st, and New-Orleans to the 30th ult. By them we receive little of importance beyond what will be found in another column. Mr. Sevier, Commissioner to Mexico, passed through Mobile on the 30th, on his way to

Brig. Gen. Kearney arrived in New-Orleans from St. Louis, on the 29th, and will proceed by the first conveyance, to the City of Mexico. There is nothing of importance from the MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.—We are pleased to learn that a large proportion of the stock necessary to complete the Telegraphic line between this place and Weldon, has been subscribed for by our enterprising citizens. Dr. DUNCAN, who is now amongst us as the agent of the Washington and N. Orleans Telegraphic Company, informs us that the whole amount necessary to complete the work is about $22,-500. He further informs us that the present expectation is, that the Petersburg people will meet us at the junction; but that, should they not do this, the Company for which he is the agent, will make the connection with the main line at Gaston. We need scarcely, at this day, offer any arguments to the enterprising business men of the town of Wilmington , to adopt the Telegraphic wires as the mode of communicating with their distant correspondents. We see no reason why they should not now promptly avail themselves of the opportunity offered to set the ball in motion. Why should we be behind our sister towns of Fayetteville and Raleigh? Surely enterprising than they are. Certainly we have as much use for a Telegraphic line as hey have. Besides, we are credibly informed tion are paying handsome dividends to the of the stock required, and that ere the lapse of three months, we will be enabled to have the the country "as quick as lightning."

the court under any order known to the court." "The court also informed Major Gen'l Scott that all the parties to which the order referred would be present in court to-morrow morning at the regular hour of meeting.

"Gen'l Scott here rose and said: That the court might well conceive how much, how deeply, he had been wounded by the information just communicated. Far distant from his country, his home, and his family, he found himself but a prisoner at large in the capital of the Mexican Republic; struck down by the supreme military power from a high command -a command of some considerable elevation, of some considerable glory—the highest, perhaps, in view of the numbers, the valor and prowess of the army, held by an American soldier since the days of Washington. Nor was this all. He found himself placed as the chief criminal before the court, and was informed that one of the parties against whom a specific charge was preferred by him, has been acquitted and rewarded before trial, by the highest constitutional military authority of our country. The accused had now become the accuser, the judge the criminal.— Deeply wounded as I am, continued the General, I pause, but not for ideas-they crowd upon me; not for want of feeling-my feelings are too deep for utterance; but I wish, Mr. President, to keep in order-if these remarks are not, I bow in deference to the decision of the court. "The President in reply stated that the remarks were infringing upon the rules of order, and Gen'l Scott immediately resumed his seat. Whereupon, the President declared the Court adjourned until to-morrow morning. " J. M. J." We find in El Monitor Republicano, of the 17th, one day's later proceedings:

Court of Investigation .- Yesterday morning, at ten o'clock, the members of the Court Martial again assembled, being present Gen'l Scott, with his staff, Gen'ls Worth and Pillow. Col. Duncan, and many other officers of the army. The judges, after having been constituted according to regulation, expressed their readiness to investigate the charges of Gen'l Worth against Gen'l Scott. The latter rose, and stated that he was there to listen to what had been alleged against him. He then produced a letter, which, by permission of the Court, he read, having reference to the arrest of Lt. Col. Duncan, stating that he did not consider the court a tribunal to examine and decide upon any or all the charges that had been brought against him. At this point he was interrupted by the Judge Advocate, who read the following letter:

"HEADQUARTERS OF THE FIRST DIVISION, & "Sir-In the matter of my appeal against Gen'l Scott, the commander-in-chief of the army, the President has rendered me full and ample justice. For the welfare and harmony the service, I wish, therefore, to withdraw he accusations made in my appeal against Major General Scott.

"To Gen. N. Towson, Pres. Court of Investi-

the doors of the court were closed. When the court re-opened the Judge Advocate announced that he had determined to suspend proceedings for the moment, and that if the parties had no objection he would fix motions, rules, &c. Gen'l Scott opposed this decision, on account of the trouble which the taking down in writing of the interlocutory questions that might be started in the sequel of the instigation would occasion, when the Court proposed that the case should be suspended. and that it should proceed to that of General Pillow. General Scott then requested that the court should take down some of his observations, that they might appear on the record, as well as some others which he was about to make, which the court refused. He then demanded of the court, in order to save time, to proceed with the case of Lieut. Col. Duncan, for which he was prepared. After some rethat his object in pressing the matter was to investigate solely the case of Gen. Scott, and according to quality. not to take cognizance of that of Col. Duncan, for which it was not specially prepared. Gen. Scott insisted upon reading a document relating the charges against Col. Duncan, which he court refused to admit.

"Gen. Pillow rose and demanded that h should be allowed to vindicate himself, and that he was the more anxious as there was every probability of peace being established e entered the service by virtue of a law which in case of peace would require his immediate departure, and that if his defence were put off it might be extended to a longer perithan he would wish to remain in his present position; he hoped the court would not proceed with the case of Col. Duncan. "The court ordered that the case of Gen'

Scott should be deferred until the following day, and decided to go on with the case of Col Duncan. Thereupon General Scott proceeded to make two charges: "1st.-A violation of the army regulations, which prohibit the publication of letters or despatches not published by authority relating o military operations.

"2d.—Some fact asserted by Col. Duncan n the letter and the answer of that officer to

THE FOREIGN NEWS-FRENCH REVOLUnews received by the Caledonia, as we feel more interesting to them.

The people of America cannot but feel a deep and lively interest in the scenes now being enacted in France. It will be seen that away, and in its stead has been erected a republic, such as it is. We, for one, do not believe that the change can be effected in France without producing another extraordinary convulsion throughout Europe. We hope we may be mistaken. We sincerely hope that the French people, for whose character, in many respects, we entertain the highest esteem, may be enabled peaceably and quietly to carry out the great reform in which they have so boldly embarked. We fear they will not, however. Factions will arise. Those distinguished names now at the head of affairs will find, we fear, that the task they have undertaken is one which cannot be accomplished without bloodshed and rapine, as the necessary concomitants of the undertaking. The French people are peculiarly and emphatically a volatile, excitable people, who, it may be said, rather act than think. Pleased, indeed, would we be to see the loveliest land in Europe, renowned as it is for the gallantry and intelligence of its people, flourishing behave to pass through a fiery ordeal ere she arrives at this happy result; if arrive there an approaching convulsion. The next year is, if we mistake not the signs of the times, cate and complex a character at once to be pregnant with important events. > The facts stand out in historical boldness of outline, depicted in such indelible characters that they must endure until the last syllable of recorded time. A provisional government has been organized by our neighbors, the members of which are celebrated throughout the world for genius, eloquence, and science. Some of them are of almost romantic integrity. Carried away by the eloquence of Lamartine, the excited, ungovernable mob of Paris threw down the muskets, which, in the first fury of their new born zeal for liberty, they had taken up against the popular leader, and by their unanimous shouts invested the Provisional Government with full authority. The Toil of a Newspaper.—Newspaper literature is a link in the great chain of miracles which prove the greatness of England, and every support should be given to newspapers. The editors of these papers must have a most enormous task. It is not the writing of the leading article itself, but the obligation to write that article every week. whether inclined or not, in sickness or in health, in affliction or disease of the mind, winter and summer, year after year tied down to the task, remaining in one spot. It is something like the walking of a thousand miles in a thousand hours. I have a fellow feeling, for I know how a periodical will wear down one' existence. In itself, it appears nothing. The la bor is not manifest nor is it severe; it is the continual attention which it requires. Your life becomes, as it were, the publication. One week is no sooner corrected and printed, than on comes another. It is the stone of Sisyphus, and endless repitition of toil, a constant weight upon the mind, a continual wearing upon the intellect and spirit-demanding al the exertion of your faculties, at the same time you are compelled to do the severest drudgery. To write for a paper is very well, but to edit one is to condemn yourself to slavery .- Marryatt.

Arrest of a Defaulter .- Randall Hutchinson, a defaulter for nearly $24,000 at the U. S. Mint, was arrested in Philadelphia on Monday, and committed in default of bail. He had just arrived from the West Indies, having been persuaded by Captain Eckfeldt to return home. He surrendered to the Captain $2,000 of the money, and his surety had previously paid $5,000, leaving about $17,000 deficit. Baltimore Clipper.
